

SEASON 1

EXODUS

The Cry for Freedom

3 Mar 2019

Drawn Out

God rescues his people by drawing us
out of our old ways into his new ways.

3 contrasts between the new and the old ways:

1. Life vs death
2. Faith vs fear
3. Grace-dependent vs self-dependent

Exodus
2:1

Now a man from the house of Levi went and took as his wife a Levite woman.

Exodus
2:1-2

Now a man from the house of Levi went and took as his wife a Levite woman. ² The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him three months.

A culture of death is one that demands a quick end to any kind of suffering, but a culture of life is one that endures needed suffering for good.

Romans
8:15

For you did not receive the spirit of slavery to fall back into fear, but you have received the Spirit of adoption as sons, by whom we cry, “Abba! Father!”

*Just as we have been spiritually adopted
into God's family
that we may live,
God calls his people
to sacrificially adopt needy children into our families that they too may live.*

3 contrasts

new and the
old ways:

1. Life vs death
2. Faith vs fear

Exodus
2:3

When she could hide him no longer, she took for him a basket made of bulrushes and daubed it with bitumen and pitch. She put the child in it and placed it among the reeds by the river bank.

Exodus
2:4

And his sister stood at a distance to know what would be done to him.

Hebrews
11:23

By faith Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that the child was beautiful, and they were not afraid of the king's edict.

Exodus
2:5

Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river...

Exodus
2:5

Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it.

Exodus
2:5-6

Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it. ⁶ When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby was crying...

Exodus
2:5-6

Now the daughter of Pharaoh came down to bathe at the river, while her young women walked beside the river. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her servant woman, and she took it. ⁶ When she opened it, she saw the child, and behold, the baby was crying. She took pity on him and said, "This is one of the Hebrews' children."

Exodus
2:7

Then his sister said to Pharaoh's daughter, "Shall I go and call you a nurse from the Hebrew women to nurse the child for you?"

Exodus
2:9

And Pharaoh's daughter said to her, “Take this child away and nurse him for me, and I will give you your wages.” ...

Fear does not bring you
to the final destination that God intends for
you. It is faith that brings you there.

3 contrasts
between the new and the
old ways:

1. Life vs death
2. Faith vs fear
3. Grace-dependent vs self-dependent

Exodus
2:10

...She named him Moses, “Because,” she said, “I drew him out of the water.”

Exodus
2:3

When she could hide him no longer, she took for him a basket made of bulrushes and daubed it with bitumen and pitch...

Matthew
7:11

If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father who is in heaven give good things to those who ask him!

Luke
18:6-7

⁶...Hear what the unrighteous judge says. ⁷And will not God give justice to his elect, who cry to him day and night?

If the daughter of an evil king would show compassion and risk her life to save a baby from his father's unrighteous wrath, how much more would the Son of the holy God show compassion and lose his life to save his chosen people from his Father's righteous wrath?
