God hardens the heart
– not by squeezing tighter –
but by letting go

Exodus
9:16

“But for this purpose I have raised you up, to show you my power, so that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.”

Romans
9:17

For the Scripture says to Pharaoh, “For this very purpose I have raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name may be proclaimed in all the earth.”

Ephesians 1:11b

[God] works all things according to the counsel of his will

Romans 9:18

So then [God] has mercy on whomever he wills, and he hardens whomever he wills.

Romans 9:19

You will say to me then, “Why does [God] still find fault? For who can resist his will?”

Romans 9:20-21

20 But who are you, O man, to answer back to God? Will what is molded say to its molder, “Why have you made me like this?”
21 Has the potter no right over the clay, to make out of the same lump one vessel for honorable use and another for dishonorable use?
