3 things we derive from this great call to love

1. The revelation
2. The conviction
3. The fulfilment

3 things we derive from this great call to love

1. The revelation

Love

And one of the scribes came up and heard them disputing with one another, and seeing that he answered them well, asked him, “Which commandment is the most important of all?”

Mark 12:28

³⁴ But when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together. ³⁵ And one of them, a lawyer, asked him a question to test him.

Matthew 22:34-35

29 Jesus answered, “The most important is, ‘Hear, O Israel: The Lord our God, the Lord is one.” 30 And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.” 31 The second is this: ‘You shall love your neighbor as yourself.’ There is no other commandment greater than these.”

Mark 12:29-31

The emphasis of the Christian faith is a distinct love for God as a relational being.

Our distinct love for a personal God with a name overflows into distinct love for His image bearers with names.

Love

³⁰ And you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength. ³¹ The second is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.' There is no other commandment greater than these."

Mark 12:30-31

On these two commandments depend all the Law and the Prophets.

Matthew 22:40

“Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you tithe mint and dill and cumin, and have neglected the weightier matters of the law: justice and mercy and faithfulness. These you ought to have done, without neglecting the others.

Matthew 23:23

Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city and a tower with its top in the heavens, and let us make a name for ourselves...

Genesis 11:4
