Colossians 3:1-4 [ESV]

If then you have been raised with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. ² Set your minds on things that are above, not on things that are on earth. ³ For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. ⁴ When Christ who is your life appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Colossians 3:1-4

Since, then, you have been raised with Christ, set your hearts on things above, where Christ is, seated at the right hand of God. 2 Set your minds on things above, not on earthly things. 3 For you died, and your life is now hidden with Christ in God. 4 When Christ, who is your life, appears, then you also will appear with him in glory.

Spiritual exhaustion is a feeling of tiredness brought about by immense spiritual activity
without sensing
any real transformation.

Three Ways To Draw Strength in Christ:

- Placing your identity in anything other than Christ will only lead to more and more exhaustion.
- Strength comes when you place your identity in Christ.
- When God sees you, he sees Christ. And when God sees Christ on the Cross, he sees you. You have died. Christ is your life.
- The secret to strength and joy and rest is solely placing your identity in Christ.

KNOW CHRIST IS OUR FOUNDATION

- Since Christ is our life, it matters where we set our hearts
- Whatever it is that occupies your attention, will steer and shape you.
- What you look at changes you.

KNOW CHRIST IS OUR FOCUS

A silhouette of a person with long hair, seen from the side, pointing their right index finger towards a bright star in a dark, starry night sky. The person is positioned in the lower-left corner of the frame. The sky is filled with numerous stars of varying brightness, and a soft, hazy light is visible in the bottom-left corner.
